

8, BLY PLACE,

DUBLIN.

I have known Miss Winifred Dickson intimately since she commenced the study of medicine, and I cannot speak too highly of her, or too strongly of the opinion I have formed of her ability, energy, and devotion to her profession. While I was a Professor in the College of Burgess she was one of