will as soon all y from have to be near each other.

Read the marked article in Lancet
on people wearing masks than dressing burns - same thing applies to colds

I saw a man operate in a mask in Berlin in 1894 ✓ I thought how perfectly ridiculous it was, but of course it is universal now at ops & I hope soon will be for lay people.
I got mad here when the nurses fussed about their work with a streaming cold
