Dec. 16, 1921.

Please excuse the discrepancy. Now in which this "Free" is made out, some time ago. When I have got more information I shall send you a better copy.

My dear Winifred
Your last letter should have been replied to long ere this but I waited for more information at first and since my return home on Dec. 1 have been greatly rushed as that a good deal of time taken up with the Zenana Sale and getting the house put in order after being closed a couple of months
