

18 UPPER MERRION STREET,

7th November, 1898.

To the President and Council of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland,

GENTLEMEN,

I beg to apply for the position of Professor of Midwifery now vacant in your College.

As a student in the School of Surgery I gained the following distinctions:—

- 1888 Anatomy (practical). First place and medal.
Anatomy (written—Prof. Frazer). First place and medal, bracketed equal with another candidate.
Anatomy (written—Prof. Thornley Stoker). Second place.
- 1889 Anatomy (written). First place, bracketed equal.
Anatomy (practical). First place, bracketed equal.
Surgery. First place and silver medal.
Histology. First place, bracketed equal.
- 1890 Anatomy (practical). First place.
Medicine. First place, bracketed equal.

In 1891 I obtained the silver medal for Clinical Medicine at Sir Patrick Dun's Hospital, also second-class honours, and a second-class exhibition at the second medical examination of the Royal University, and I took the qualifications of Licentiate of the Royal Colleges of Physicians and Surgeons in Ireland and Licentiate in Midwifery, Rotunda Hospital.

In 1892 I obtained first-class honours and a first-class exhibition at the Third Medical Examination of the Royal University.

In 1893 I obtained the degrees of M.B., B.Ch., B.A.O. at the Royal University, with first-class honours and a first-class exhibition, and later on I obtained the Travelling Medical Scholarship of the Royal University.