

holiday after her thirtieth time in Calif.

Willie Walker got three new black granite headstones put up in Benbulb Graveyard over his Mother's, Grandmother's and Uncle John McGeagh's graves.
When Willie was in Benbulb last September he asked the section to go round and get the names and dates of the oldest graves he could make out. Some could not be read at all but the enclosed list is what he sent Willie. It does not necessarily follow that any or all of these are our relatives but merely that these people