in Dublin we drove down to owthe to a 'resbyterian Church where you liked the Pastor and he preached on the text "He was a man of God, and an honorable man". It has given me joy at times ever since for even well read clericals, seem to have not seen it and sometimes deny that such a text exists. I forget where it is, but it rather confounds some who inisit "A man of God" is always honorable. I got that off on some one recently. I run into many of them even in Philadelphia.
